Read the poem and find the rhyming words. Use six different colours, but make each pair of words that rhyme the same colour.

On a nice and sunny day
Bella jumped in a pile of hay
and there in that very pile
she slept for a while.

When at last she woke,
because she felt a poke,
she saw a group of five
bees going to their hive.

Did you see who poked my foot?
(I had to take off my boot)
and now my toe is very sore
I think I'll sleep a little more.
